PROGRAM

You're Home for the Holidays

text: Bob Daggett; music: Scott Henderson

Round and Round the Dreydl Spins

David Eddleman

The Song of No Coming and No Going

Music: Rashani

Laurie Haag, guitar

Thich Nhat Hanh, a Buddhist monk, gave these words in a poem form, saying, "This song needs to be sung to our loved ones who are dying." It is said that the words were spoken by Buddha to one of his disciples.

The Quire sings the song in memory of Tess Catalano, beloved friend, community activist, and former member of the Quire.

"Ombra mai fu" from Xerxes

G.F. Handel

"Where'er You Walk" from Semele

G.F. Handel

Dmitri Mosier, soloist

Two Songs from the AIDS Quilt Songbook

A Dream of Nightingales

text: David Bergman; music: Ned Rorem

John Crosheck, soloist

Walt Whitman in 1989

text: Perry Brass; music Chris DeBlasio

Michael Stokes, soloist

Christmas Cantata (Sinfonia Sacra, 1958)

Daniel Pinkham

I. Maestoso Quem vidistis pastores?

Translation: Shepherds, tell us your story. Speak to us! Describe to us the glory, which has appeared on earth. Christ Jesus was born for us, and the angel chorus sang praises of the Lord. Alleluia.

II. Adagio O magnum mysterium

O great mystery; who, though the Son of God, a son of man on earth was born. Even lowly beasts may behold him, lying in a manger. O blessed virgin, worthy was thy womb that did carry our Savior Jesus Christ.

III. Allegro Gloria in excelsis Deo

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will among people. Rejoice, serve the Lord with gladness; Come before God's presence with singing and exultation; Know that the Lord is strong and mighty – God created us, not we ourselves. Alleluia.

Dennis Pedde and Brian Redington, trumpet

Roger Hileman and Andrey Kharlamov, trombone

Tim Meier, organ
